THINGS TO DO:

Go Oahu: If you want to make the most of your time in Oahu, the Go Oahu Card might be your best option. You can buy the card for the number of days you want, and the card gets you in to each and every one of the included attractions (rental car included).

Ko'olina Luau at Paradise Cove:

(808) 842-5911
92-1089 Alii Nui Drive
Kapolei, Hawaii 96707
*Luau fun! $80pp

Snorkeling at Hanauma Bay

This is one of Hawaii's favorite snorkeling spots (beware of crowds). The waters are clear, warm and calm. It is a great place for novice snorkelers and only 20 minutes east of Waikiki.

Waimanalo Bay

This is our favorite beach spot. Just 30 minutes east of Waikiki, it is a perfect spot to swim, surf, or boogie board.

North Shore

The North Shore has some of the most beautiful beaches on the island. Be sure to hit up some shrimp shacks after seeing Waimea Bay and the Pipeline reef near the Ehukai Beach.

Diamond Head Trail: Located at the tip of Waikiki, its only minutes from where you will be staying. The hike is classified as easy to moderate in exertion but is certainly worth the breathtaking, unparalleled view of the entire west side of the island, from Waikiki to Koki Head.

Ko'olau Golf Club

(808) 247-7088
45-550 Kionaole Rd,
Kaneohe, HI 96744
*One of the most difficult/pretty courses in US

Makapuu Lighthouse

A 2-mile paved trail leads to the lighthouse and a fantastic view of the entire coastline and the island of Molokai in the distance. If hiking is not your thing Makapuu Beach is also beautiful.

Aloha Stadium Market

If you have plans to go to Pearl Harbor, stop by the Aloha Stadium market. It is open Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday between 8am-3pm.

Ko Olina Beach

Located about 40 minutes west of Waikiki in Kapolei, Ko Olina is a clean and gorgeous resort beach. If you wanted to do a little shopping there is also shopping outlets near by.

OBAMA MANIA

Get a taste of the 'Obama Eats'! These are the spots where the Obama family dined during their visit to Hawaii. Enjoy!

- Indigo (1121 Nuuanu Ave.). The Obama's ordered: the dim sum plate (goat cheese wontons, lumpia-wrapped shrimp, duck mu shu rolls); toasted black mustard and pepper crusted ahi served rare with wasabi soy, sun dried tomato and olive tapenade.
- Alan Wong's, (1857 S. King St.)
- Rainbow Drive-In, (3308 Kāhāina Ave). Plate lunch.
- Zippy's: "Zip Min," a bowl of noodle in hot broth with everything from wontons and vegetables to fish cake and sweet pork.
- Grace's Inn: chicken katsu on top of a bed of chow fun noodles, two scoops of rice and a side of mac salad
- Island Snow Shave Ice. (130 Kailua Road, Kailua). Cheeseburgers
- Sakura Restaurant. (41-1801 Kālianāole Hwy., Waimanalo.) ahi poke, fried gyoza, and the 12-ounce ribeye steak.
- Kua Aina Sandwich, (1200 Ala Moana Blvd.) 1/3-pound cheeseburgers, six 1-pound cheeseburgers, 10 Kiddie Burgers and 20 orders of fries.
- Koko Marina Paradise: The tuna melt, now called the "Presidential Order". (I really don't like the food at this place, personally. I can make a better sandwich than here any day).
- Kokonuts Shave Ice, (7192 Kālianāole Hwy., Hawaii Kai). Small lemon-lime and cherry shaved ice.
- Mariposa, (1450 Ala Moana Blvd., Ala Moana Neiman Marcus)
